

Molifilms Entertainment are proud to announce that Actor Brad Moore will be attending Festival Univercine 2016 in support of our film 'Golden Years'.

Brad Moore brings some Comedy Gold to the screen as lead antagonist DC Stringer in our ensemble hit of the year GOLDEN YEARS and we are sure he will be a stand out star at the Festival too.

Over the past few years, Brad has become best known for his work on the big screen and his collaborations with a host of incredible actors. Brad's career began with a role in the BAFTA winning film THE RISE, where he worked alongside Timothy Spall followed by the critically acclaimed, Montana, with Lars Mikkelsen and Michelle Fairly. Last year Brad played his first lead role in North Vs South as psychotic villain Gary Little, alongside another incredible cast boasting Bernard Hill, Steven Berkoff, Keith Allen and Freema Agyeman. In a performance that HEYUGUYS called "stand-out" and stated that "Moore's performance perfectly encapsulates everything that is brutal about this piece".

Brad's latest role in GOLDEN YEARS, which was recently released digitally and on DVD from the after having been released in over 200 UK screens, follows a group of pensioners robbing banks in order to steal back their pensions. Brad plays the narcissistic copper intent on foiling the pensioner's plans, in an undeniably crowd pleasing performance, together with some of the UK's most esteemed acting talent, including: Alun Armstrong, Bernard Hill, Sue Johnston, Virginia McKenna, Simon Callow, Una Stubbs, Mark Williams and Phil Davis. Currently in post-production, his next film sees him co-writing the script for GLOVES OFF and starring in the lead role alongside: Ricky Tomlinson, Alexei Sayle, Denise Van Outen and Paul Barber.

We'd be delighted to arrange interviews with Brad to talk about Golden Years as well as his past and future projects. If you are interested in booking a meeting or would like further information please contact Tanya Beadle at Molifilms. Email t.beadle@molifilms.com. +447940 705 726

BRAD MOORE BIOGRAPHY

Having started his acting career later in life, Brad has quickly built an impressive profile starting with a role in the breakthrough Bafta winning film THE RISE, acting alongside Timothy Spall (Mr. Turner) and Luke Treadaway (Unbroken). After this he starred as 'DC Stephen Phelps' in the urban action flick MONTANA alongside Ashley Walters (Top Boy), Michelle Fairly (Game of Thrones) and Lars Mikklesen (House of Cards). Both films were released by eOne in multiple territories including the UK and U.S.

Brad's first leading role came in crime thriller NORTHvSOUTH where he played psychotic villain 'Gary Little', starring alongside Steven Berkoff, Bernard Hill (Lord of the Rings) and Keith Allen. Fortitude Magazine said of Brad's performance... "Brad Moore raises the acting bar and his performance as the psychotic Gary Little is one of the outstanding features of the film, and could quite happily sit alongside the highest calibre of gangster movies". NORTHvSOUTH is currently on general release in the UK after a national release in cinemas last year.

Brad can shortly be seen playing the lead antagonist 'Stringer' in the comedy heist GOLDEN YEARS (a British Independent feature that focuses on pensioners robbing banks to steal back their pensions!) GOLDEN YEARS was released on 29 April 2016 and stars some of Britain's most esteemed acting talent including Bernard Hill, Alun Armstrong (New Tricks), Sue Johnston (The Royal Family), Virginia Mckenna, Simon Callow, Una Stubbs, Mark Williams and Phil Davis.
